

A lifetime of support

Planning for a family member who has special needs

You're invited to a complimentary seminar

Have you made preparations for your loved one's lifetime care? Our team of special needs professionals will be on hand to discuss some of the potential financial, social and legal issues facing parents who have a family member with a disability. They'll also talk about strategies for:

- Putting in place the things you want to happen now and after you're gone
- Helping ensure your loved one's current quality of life through supplemental income while maintaining government benefits
- Preserving your estate for your family or charitable organizations
- Balancing your financial goals for the benefit of your loved one with a disability and your entire household

Come to our seminar and learn about the special needs services available to you.
